

CONTACT: Kristina Ruidas
Communications Coordinator
HENAAC

Phone: (323) 262-0997

Fax: (323) 262-0946

E-mail: kristina@henaac.org

June 30, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HENAAC 2004 Engineer of the Year, Alex Archila, President of Chevron Canada Resources, to speak on "The Globalization of Business and its Impact in the Technical Community" on July 7, 2005 in Anaheim, CA

HENAAC has the distinct pleasure of having Mr. Alex Archila, President of Chevron Canada Resources for the Chevron Corporation and the HENAAC 2004 Engineer of the Year, discuss "The Globalization of Business and its Impact in the Technical Community". The Chevron Corporation is ranked as the 6th largest corporation according to the Fortune 500 listing. This key note speech will be presented at:

The HENAAC Summit Dinner
Thursday July 7, 2005 at 7:00 pm
Anaheim Marriott Hotel Grand Ballroom E

The 17th annual HENAAC Summit is scheduled to take place July 7 & 8, 2005 at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel. This summit brings together HENAAC committees: The Board of Directors, the Conference Selection Committee, the Conference Planning Committee and the Executive Advisory Council. The committees are comprised of key executives and administrators from corporations, government and educational organizations. The purpose of the Summit is to select the professional winners, scholarship recipients and prepare the logistics for the upcoming national conference scheduled to take place October 6-8, 2005 also at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel.

Media representatives that would like to attend and cover Mr. Archila's speech please RSVP to kristina@henaac.org

HENAAC Mission Statement: To enlighten the nation about the achievements of Hispanics in science and technology and motivate more students to pursue careers in these fields, and thereby increase the role that the Hispanic community plays in contributing to the nation's status as a world's technology leader.

For more information about the 2005 HENAAC conference or past HENAAC Award winners, please call the office at (323) 262-0997, or visit our website at www.henaac.org.

###